

KINETIC ART

Kinetic art is a current of fine arts that explores visual effects through physical movements or optical illusions, or tricks of positioning pieces. What I like most about this type of art is the visual study of movement.

